

Help provide a child with free school supplies.

Supply a Future

There are 80,000 St. Louis area children who cannot afford basic school supplies, items as simple as paper, crayons and pencils. They do not lack the ability or desire to learn. They simply lack the resources they need to succeed in school.

What if one of these children is the next Einstein, Hemingway, Newton or Picasso?

But, without pencils, paper, crayons, how will they develop their talents? How will they become what they aspire to be when they grow up?

Einstein...Hemingway...Newton...Picasso...

By partnering with KidSmart today, what great mind of tomorrow will you be sponsoring?

KidSmart operates a free school supply store which provides thousands of local kids in need with the supplies necessary to succeed in school. For more information about KidSmart, visit www.kidsmartstl.org.
